Property Description

Introduction Thailand's Immigration Bureau has introduced an enhanced online reporting system for the mandatory 90-day check-in for foreigners, a move expected to greatly simplify the process for expats living in Thailand.

The updated system, announced on January 22, 2024, aims to reduce overcrowding at Immigration offices and improve overall efficiency.

Improved Reliability and Convenience The revamped online reporting platform is designed to be more reliable and user-friendly, addressing previous technical issues that often forced expats to visit Immigration offices in person.

With this upgrade, foreigners residing in Thailand, including those in popular expat destinations like Hua Hin, Cha-Am, and Koh Samui, can fulfill their 90-day reporting obligations with ease and convenience.

Impact on Expats and Immigration Offices This digital transformation is expected to significantly reduce (Read more on website)
